

INTERNETNZ REGISTRAR AUTHORISATION AGREEMENT

V2.0, 14 October 2002

The Internet Assigned Numbers Authority has delegated responsibility to the Internet Society of New Zealand Incorporated (InternetNZ) to manage the .nz domain name space.

You have applied to become a registrar of the .nz domain name space. We have considered your application and decided that you meet our preliminary requirements to authorise you to be one of our registrars.

You agree that these terms apply to our relationship and that is indicated when we both sign this agreement.

Please read these terms carefully before agreeing to them.

Note: this standard Agreement applies to all authorised registrars.

You may e-mail us on registrar@dnc.org.nz.

1. DEFINITIONS

In this agreement except where the context requires otherwise:

“business” means any undertaking whether carried on for gain or reward or not, or in the course of which goods or services are acquired or supplied whether free of charge or not;

“company” means a legal entity other than a natural person, including but not limited to a body corporate or unincorporated group;

“domain name” means an alphanumeric string which resolves to Internet resources as detailed in RFC 1034;

“the Internet” means a confederation of regional and local networks based on TCP/IP;

“notify” means communicate in writing (including by e-mail);

“.nz domain name” means any domain name which ends in .nz;

“.nz policies” means all standards, policies, procedures, technical specifications, rules and practices issued by InternetNZ for the management of .nz domain name space and published on our website from time to time;

“person” includes any non-personal legal entity or groups whether incorporated or not;

“register” means the database of information about the nz domain name space and which is the authoritative repository for the creation of the primary zone files for the .nz country code;

“registrant” means a person that is allocated a domain name registered to them within the .nz domain name space;

“registry” means New Zealand Domain Name Registry Limited (trading as .nz Registry Services) its delegates or such other organisation, that holds, operates and manages the register, including the transfer to the zone files;

“services” means anything we do or arrange for you;

“we” “our” or “us” means Internet Society of New Zealand Incorporated (InternetNZ) which is responsible for setting policy designed to facilitate the correct and efficient operation of the .nz domain name space;

“you” means the party which signed this application to become one of our .nz registrars, who while authorised has rights within the .nz domain name space to provide domain name registration services to registrants.

2. IMPORTANT: GENERAL CLAUSE

This clause 2 takes priority over all other clauses of this agreement.

Acquiring Services for the Purposes of a Business

If you are acquiring our services for the purposes of a business or use our services for such purpose then you agree to the extent legally permitted your rights in respect of the services or this agreement are limited to the rights expressly stated in this agreement. By way of example only, registrars for business purposes will not have the remedies available under the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 (New Zealand) for the services we provide under this agreement.

3. IMPORTANT: PRELIMINARY REQUIREMENTS

Before you can become an authorised .nz registrar, you must meet these preliminary requirements to our satisfaction.

Our preliminary requirements are that you:

- 3.1 accept this agreement without qualification;
- 3.2 pay the application fee to us in full;
- 3.3 provide evidence that you are a legal entity;
- 3.4 demonstrate that you have access to, and will continue to have, the appropriate standard of technical skills and knowledge to be an authorised registrar;
- 3.5 demonstrate that you are solvent including providing us with a letter from your bank recommending you as an entity who can pay your day to day debts as they come due;
- 3.6 demonstrate that you have, and will continue to have, the customer support services including billing capability to meet your responsibilities to registrants;
- 3.7 permit us to carry out third party checks that enable us to satisfy ourselves that you meet the above requirements;
- 3.8 until we notify you that you have met our preliminary requirements you have no right to represent to anybody that you are an authorised registrar for the .nz domain name space;
- 3.9 we reserve our absolute discretion, without assigning cause, to determine whether you satisfy the requirements, or whether to impose special conditions of acceptance.

4. AUTHORISED REGISTRAR

When we notify you that you have met our preliminary requirements, you will become one of our registrars and be authorised to act as a registrar for the .nz domain name space until this agreement ends. Your appointment is in addition to our right to appoint as many registrars as we think fit. You are permitted to state that you are an authorised registrar for the .nz domain name space but nothing else regarding your role as one of our registrars.

You agree that you are an independent party who has been permitted access to the register subject to you complying with this agreement and your obligations under any agreement you have with the registry. You are not authorised to act as our agent; will not suggest you are our agent or make any promise on our behalf in any way at all.

5. OUR COMMITMENTS TO YOU

We agree that we will:

- 5.1 notify you when we have decided you have met our preliminary requirements;
- 5.2 provide and maintain .nz policies;
- 5.3 contract for registry services that conform to best practice standards;
- 5.4 maintain an active oversight and management of the .nz domain name space;

- 5.5 exercise our responsibilities in a fair, open, transparent and timely manner;
- 5.6 regularly convene a committee of representatives of registrars and the registry to discuss issues regarding the management of the .nz domain name space;
- 5.7 take all reasonable precautions to protect your personal information against: loss or unauthorised access or use, disclosure or other misuse;
- 5.8 contact you and send information to you through the Internet wherever possible, to the e-mail address specified by you.

Our responsibility is to use all reasonable endeavours to fulfil these commitments within the constraints of the resources and knowledge available to us. The commitments are statements of general principle only; subject to other express provisions in this agreement (including the provisions in this agreement excluding or limiting our liability); and may not be used to challenge the validity of any policies, statements of process or guidelines issued by the Domain Name Commissioner or InternetNZ.

6. YOUR DUTIES TO US

General Duties

You agree to meet these general duties. To:

- 6.1 make sure all information you give us or anybody we authorise to act on our behalf is accurate and complete;
- 6.2 ensure you comply with and accurately represent all .nz policies at all times including those published by the registry or us;
- 6.3 maintain a business operation necessary for and technical equipment capable of, handling the volumes of transactions managed by you;
- 6.4 comply with the requirements for being a registrar, including your obligations under this agreement and your .NZ CONNECTION AGREEMENT with the registry;
- 6.5 ensure you do not engage in any activity that could or does bring management of the .nz domain name space into disrepute;
- 6.6 comply with any order of any authority having jurisdiction regarding a .nz domain name of any registrant for whom you act;
- 6.7 comply with all relevant legislation and in particular, the Fair Trading Act 1986 and the Privacy Act 1993;
- 6.8 safeguard the rights of registrants for whom you act;
- 6.9 maintain all documentation regarding your activity as a registrar for a period of not less than 7 years, and in particular, all instructions from registrants regarding their domain name;
- 6.10 advise us immediately if you or your officers:
 - are adjudicated bankrupt;
 - have a receiver appointed for any of your assets;
 - go into liquidation;
 - are convicted of an offence involving: dishonesty, fraud, misuse of funds, misuse of information, or found to have breached the Privacy Act;
- 6.11 make available to us, or anybody we authorised to act on our behalf, all information requested by us about your activities as a registrar and to provide access to your premises during normal business hours for that purpose;

- 6.12 maintain a record of any .nz domain names registered in: your name, any entity in which you have an interest, or any entity which has an interest in you, and make this available to us when requested;
- 6.13 ensure you have an agreement with each registrant for whom you act which contains at a minimum, the registrant's rights and obligations as specified by us in .nz policies. Any additional terms added by you must be consistent with those rights and obligations. This agreement should be accepted by each registrant, with a record of the date and time of acceptance maintained;
- 6.14 disclose accurately and completely all your terms and conditions associated with domain name registration and management in the .nz domain name space including your prices and billing terms;
- 6.15 comply with the lawful directions of registrants in a diligent and timely manner regarding their .nz domain name. For example registrant directions concerning: registration, registration period, cancellation, amendment, deletion, transfer, inaccuracy of information and any technical support and billing matters regarding such directions.
- 6.16 not use personal information relating to registrants that you collect in the course of your business related to domain name registration or management, for any reason other than for reasonable purposes associated with that except as otherwise expressly agreed by the registrant;
- 6.17 provide registrants with confirmation of the registration of their domain name including details of: the domain name, their registrar, the registration period, the Unique Domain Authentication ID, and obligations of the registrant;
- 6.18 inform registrants about the existence of InternetNZ and its activities;
- 6.19 ensure everything you do is always carried out in a prudent and competent manner and according to best practice standards to prevent: technical failure, breach of security, and disruption to the register, or any of the services the registry provides;
- 6.20 ensure you pay any sum of money owing to us;
- 6.21 keep us protected against any legal action taken against us because of the receipt or use of our services by you or someone you are responsible for or have a business relationship with, regarding our services;
- 6.22 provide to us, or the Domain Name Commissioner, promptly upon request all such information as may reasonably and lawfully be requested concerning the operation of your registry and registrants to enable the Domain Name Commissioner to implement and develop and monitor compliance with the Domain Name Commissioner's policies, statements and guidelines;
- 6.23 comply with any direction of the Domain Name Commissioner made in pursuance of the Domain Name Commissioner's powers as stated in the policies, statements and guidelines or made to enforce compliance with them.

Duties of Other Persons

- 6.24 You agree to make sure everyone you are responsible for or have a business relationship with in relation to your role as an authorised registrar also meets the above duties.

7. YOUR DUTY TO PAY THE APPLICATION FEE

You agree to pay the authorisation application fee. You incur liability for the application fee from the time we receive your application for our services.

The application fee is detailed in the Authorisation Process document published on the website at www.dnc.org.nz, is stated in New Zealand dollars and includes goods and services tax (GST).

8. METHOD OF PAYMENT

We accept payment by cheque and on-line by Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Diners.

9. CHANGE OF REGISTRAR

InternetNZ operates a shared registry system for management of the .nz domain name space. It is a fundamental principle of a shared registry system that a simple mechanism exists for registrants to change registrars. If a registrant for whom you act wishes to change registrar we both agree to follow the procedure specified by us in the .nz policies.

10. RIGHT TO APPOINT SUBORDINATES

If you wish to appoint subordinates to register domain names in the .nz domain name space you agree that you are responsible to us for the subordinate's actions and in particular, those of your duties under this agreement which are performed by the subordinate.

If the actions of the subordinate cause you to breach any duty of this agreement we may cancel it.

11. YOUR ABILITY TO ASK FOR COMPENSATION FROM US

You agree that your rights to compensation are determined and limited by clauses 12 and 13 of this agreement.

12. EXCLUSION OF LIABILITY

You acknowledge that we are a non-profit organisation carrying out its functions as a public service.

We exclude all liability we may have to you. This exclusion also applies for the benefit of these persons:

- 12.1 any entity we are in any business relationship with;
- 12.2 every officer, employee, contractor, agent of us or any entity in clause 12.1;
- 12.3 the NZ Domain Name Commissioner;
- 12.4 anyone else we get to perform our duties under any agreement you have with us.

None of the persons specified above is liable or has to pay you for anything else in connection with or resulting from anything any of us does or does not do, or delays in doing, whether or not it is contemplated or authorised by any agreement you have with us.

This exclusion applies whatever you are claiming for and in whatever way liability might arise.

This exclusion does not prevent you getting a court order requiring us to do anything we have agreed to do for you.

13. LIMITATION OF OUR LIABILITY

We have excluded all other liability we or any of the persons specified in clause 12 may have to you. If any of those persons is ever liable to you and, for any reason, cannot rely on the exclusion of liability set out in clause 12 then this clause applies.

Where this clause applies, the maximum combined amount the persons specified above (together) will have to pay you and anyone else who uses the services we provide for you (together) is the amount of the application fee paid by you under this agreement.

14. INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

During our relationship we will collect information about you from yourself and others.

Under the Privacy Act 1993, we follow strict security procedures in storing and disclosing information about you, to prevent unauthorised access. Our security measures mean that we may request proof of identity before we disclose sensitive information to you.

You may decide whether to provide any information we seek from you. However, if you do not provide it we may not be able to process your application and/or continue to treat you as an authorised registrar.

You may ask to see information we hold about you and ask for any details that are wrong to be corrected.

We may hold the information and share it with our officers, employees, contractors, and agents. This enables us and those other persons to provide information to you, to send you invoices and keep you informed of new information or services as they become available.

We and the registry may share with any person the numbers of:

- domain name registrations arranged by you according to: date of registration/name of registrar/zone/status, or any combination of these criteria;
- domain names arranged by you and transferred and cancelled according to: date of transfer or cancellation/name of registrar/zone/status, or any combination of these criteria.

15. REGISTRATION OF A DOMAIN NAME

You are not obliged to accept any application for a domain name. When you accept an application for a domain name in the .nz domain name space you are:

- 15.1 registering a domain name to a registrant because no other person has it according to the records of the register;
- 15.2 not representing anything else to anybody regarding that domain name or any other domain name. The entry of a domain name in the "who is" database shall not be taken as evidence of anything other than such registration;
- 15.3 responsible to notify any registrant for whom you act that use of the domain name may breach third party legal rights and that it is the registrant's responsibility as a condition of registration of the domain name, to satisfy itself that such legal rights are not infringed and to protect you, us and everybody who has the benefit of this agreement, from any claim arising out of the domain name being registered to that person.

16. LAW & JURISDICTION APPLYING TO THIS AGREEMENT

Unless we otherwise agree in writing, this agreement contains all the terms of our relationship and continues to apply no matter where you are located at the time any of the services are provided or where you reside. This will be the case until this agreement is cancelled except to the extent clause 26 says otherwise.

To the extent legally permitted:

- 16.1 these terms shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with New Zealand law;
- 16.2 any claim or dispute arising out of or in connection with this agreement must be instituted within 60 days from the date the relevant service was supplied to you;
- 16.3 any matter arising out of or in connection with this agreement shall be finally resolved by either you or us serving on the other, notice in writing requiring that the matter be determined by an independent person to be appointed by the President or Vice-President for the time being of the New Zealand Law Society and the party serving the notice may at any time after service of the notice refer the matter for determination. The independent person acting under this clause shall act as an expert in determining any matter arising out of or in connection with this agreement. The cost of such person shall be borne equally by both of us;
- 16.4 except as otherwise stated, you may take action against us only in a New Zealand court;
- 16.5 where you or any registrant for whom you act supplies incorrect information regarding a domain name and we incur cost in any matter concerning that name then we may recover the costs incurred by us from you.

17. RIGHT TO MAKE POLICIES REGARDING THE .NZ DOMAIN NAME SPACE

We will provide and maintain .nz policies and at anytime we may amend those policies. We agree to publicise such amendments before implementing them. All changes to .nz policies will be notified to you by e-mail and by posting them on our website before the date they become effective.

18. ALTERING THESE CLAUSES

We may alter or remove existing clauses of this agreement or add new ones. Alterations may be in the nature of completely new clauses. We can do this without the need to obtain the consent of the persons in clause 21.

Before we make any alterations, we will notify you by e-mail of these and the changes shall come into effect one month later.

Please ask us at any time for a copy of our current agreement with you.

19. ESTABLISHMENT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

As soon as practicable we will establish a standing committee comprising representatives of: you, the registry, and us to resolve technical issues regarding: the technical specifications of the register, its interfaces, and the management of the .nz domain name space.

20. SENDING INVOICE AND NOTICES

We will send notices to the last e-mail address or fax number you have given us. We can assume any:

- 20.1 e-mail has been received when it has been sent to the e-mail address we sent it to even if it has not been downloaded from the Internet Service Provider hosting the e-mail address.
- 20.2 fax has been received when we receive confirmation of transmission to the number we sent it to.

You may send any notice to us by: e-mailing it to registrar@dnc.org.nz or sending it by fax to +64 4 4721207. Please tell us if you change your e-mail address or fax number.

21. MEETING OUR DUTIES THROUGH AGENTS

We may have any agent approved by us in writing perform any part of our side of the agreement you have with us. If that occurs, each of those persons and their officers, employees, contractors or agents shall have the benefit of any terms that confer benefits on us.

22. TRANSFERRING RESPONSIBILITIES

We may transfer the whole or parts of our rights and obligations under this agreement to another person. We will tell you if we do this. Our entitlement to rights and duties to perform obligations transferred will cease and be replaced by the entitlements and duties of the transferee from the date we notify you, or such later date as we specify. If you are a body corporate or other non-personal entity, and your ownership, management or control changes, you must notify us promptly, and seek our consent to your authorisation agreement continuing. You may not transfer this agreement or any benefit or obligation of it to another person. If you are a business and your management or control is altered without our written consent, then this will be treated by us as a transfer of this agreement entitling us to end it.

23. MORE THAN ONE PERSON

All the persons who you permit to perform or carry out your role as a registrar, and use or acquire services from us, are treated by us as persons you are responsible for under this agreement and must meet all your duties under it.

24. EACH CLAUSE SEPARATELY BINDING

Each clause of every agreement you have with us is separately binding.

If for any reason we, you, or any of the persons specified in clause 12 cannot rely on any clause, all other clauses of this agreement remain binding.

25. CANCELLING OR SUSPENDING THE AGREEMENT

- 25.1 If you want to cancel the agreement you have with us, please e-mail us at registrar@dnc.org.nz or fax us on +64 4 472 1207. Unless the law says otherwise, or we have both agreed to the contrary, this agreement will end 2 months after we receive your communication.
- 25.2 We may give you notice cancelling or suspending this agreement at any time if you do not meet any of your duties to us, including:
- ▶ you deliberately fail to meet your duties to us;
 - ▶ if you fail to meet any duty within 14 days of notice specifying failure and requiring remedy;
 - ▶ if a clause 6.10 event occurs.
- 25.3 We may cancel or suspend this agreement for any other reason by giving you at least 1 month's notice.
- 25.4 Unless the law requires otherwise, the agreement will end immediately if we cancel it under clause 25.2.
- 25.5 Upon cancellation of this agreement, you shall:
- (a) take all actions necessary to safeguard the rights of registrants for whom you act; and
 - (b) cease to hold yourself out as one of our registrars; and
 - (c) immediately discontinue acting as a registrar; and
 - (d) (where cancellation is by you) arrange for the transfer of registered domain names for which you are the designated registrar to a new registrar(s) and the notification of this to each registrant for whom you act; and
 - (e) (where cancellation is by us) you agree we have the right to direct you to transfer registered domain names for which you are the designated registrar, to other registrars of ours in line with the policy published by us; and
 - (f) work co-operatively with all persons who we say are involved in transfers of registered domain names for which you are the designated registrar to other registrars.
- 25.6 Cancellation of this agreement means the .NZ CONNECTION AGREEMENT is cancelled.

26. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES THAT CONTINUE

The cancelling of any agreement you have with us does not affect any rights and responsibilities which are intended to continue or come into force afterwards. These include the rights and duties under clauses 2, 3, 4, 6-7, 9, 11-16, 21, 23, 24 and this clause 26.
